Louisa Nicolina Kandoli:

The paper "A MODEL OF ICT BASED EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION SYSTEM TO IMPROVING THE HIGH SCHOOLS VOCATIONAL CULINARY ART SKILL IN INDONESIA" has been preliminarily reviewed.

I regret to inform you, however, that the paper will not move forward to the peer-review process and be considered for publication on the Educational Sciences: Theory & Practice in the way it is.

The paper needs a deep reformulation for being considered for another review. The paper has no quality in the way it is to move forward. In case the authors provide all necessary improvements, the paper can be considered for a second review.

Some important considerations:

- 1) Rewrite the abstract with structure: problem statement, aims, methodology, results, and recommendation.
- 2) Introductions need to add enough content for a scientific publication, add previous study to support the problem statement. Please add your aims add the end of introduction.
- 3) Please separately your literature review with adding previous study with minimum 5 years.
- 4) Research methodology need more detail to meet the way to achieve your aims of study. Also please make clear your sample, data collection, and data analysis. Please make clear the figure of ICT model.
- 5) Data analysis and results need to add table of teacher assessment on the application of academic information with the explanations. Make sure that table of teacher ICT training having clear justification to meet the reader.
- 6) Although you have made sub heading conclusion and recommendation, but I want to see you make sub heading for implication and future direction. I suggest you also to adding table of Teachers ICT Training to see deeply the respondents ICT Course/Levels.
- 7) I want to see also for conclusion and recommendation that need deeply which can answer your research objective and also the lack of the research which have done.
- 8) More, I also need you add subheading implication and future directions.
- 9) References need add more with linking to 5 years previous studies.

The paper can be resubmitted for a review after huge improvements, and this does not guarantee it will be approved.

Louisa Nicolina Kandoli:

The paper "A MODEL OF ICT BASED EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION SYSTEM TO IMPROVING THE HIGH SCHOOLS VOCATIONAL CULINARY ART SKILL IN INDONESIA" has been reviewed again.

Good improvements have been made to the paper. However, there are still minor improvements to be made.

Some considerations:

- 1) Update the abstract in your native language. A small change has been made to the English version.
- 2) There are still missing some relevant information in the Methods section.
- 3) There are still need add for update references.

The paper can be resubmitted for a review after huge improvements and this does not guarantee it will be approved.
