Asking About Manuscript

Nicky Tumulun <nickytumalun@unima.ac.id> kepada Sever
Rab, 8 Sep 2021, 10.00

Dear Editors of AJMAA,

I hope this email finds you well.

My name is Nicky Kurnia Tumulun, one of the authors of manuscript entitle:
"A regularity of the weak solution gradient of the Dirichlet problem for divergent form elliptic equations in Morrey Spaces".

Thank you for taking care of our manuscript.

Since our manuscript was submitted to AJMAA almost 7 months ago (Feb, 28, 2021), we would like to know the current status of this manuscript.

Thank you for your cooperation and your time.

Best regards,

Dear Dr. Tumulun,

Following the positive recommendation of the referee on the mathematical contents of your paper, I am pleased to accept your paper:

"A regularity of the weak solution gradient of the Dirichlet problem for divergent form elliptic equations in Morrey Spaces", for publication in AJMAA.

I have also asked the assistant editor to send you the invoice for the Open Access fee of AU$725

Enclosed with this message, you will find the files for the AJMAA template.

Utilising the required files, please strictly implement your paper in AJMAA style, including the references. Please also proofread this version and send to Assistant Editor directly all the necessary files to compile the paper in Latex (including a pdf file that has been created by compiling your files in AJMAA style) at your earliest convenience.

If the paper is not prepared in Latex according with the rules above, it will not be published in AJMAA.

The Assistant Editor, who is the publisher representative, will assess the files and will communicate with you on all the matters referring the publication of the present paper. Please do not contact me on these matters since I do not interfere with the Publisher scheduling of the accepted papers.
